

Why must there be a hell?

Why must there be a hell? Because there must be a place for the execution of divine justice. Earthly monarchs have their prison for criminals—and shall not God have his? Sinners are criminals, they have offended God. It would not be consistent with His holiness and justice—to have His laws infringed, and not inflict penalties.

- Thomas Watson

Why must there be a hell?

Why must there be a hell? Because there must be a place for the execution of divine justice. Earthly monarchs have their prison for criminals—and shall not God have his? Sinners are criminals, they have offended God. It would not be consistent with His holiness and justice—to have His laws infringed, and not inflict penalties.

- Thomas Watson

Why must there be a hell?

Why must there be a hell? Because there must be a place for the execution of divine justice. Earthly monarchs have their prison for criminals—and shall not God have his? Sinners are criminals, they have offended God. It would not be consistent with His holiness and justice—to have His laws infringed, and not inflict penalties.

- Thomas Watson

Why must there be a hell?

Why must there be a hell? Because there must be a place for the execution of divine justice. Earthly monarchs have their prison for criminals—and shall not God have his? Sinners are criminals, they have offended God. It would not be consistent with His holiness and justice—to have His laws infringed, and not inflict penalties.

- Thomas Watson

Why must there be a hell?

Why must there be a hell? Because there must be a place for the execution of divine justice. Earthly monarchs have their prison for criminals—and shall not God have his? Sinners are criminals, they have offended God. It would not be consistent with His holiness and justice—to have His laws infringed, and not inflict penalties.

- Thomas Watson

Why must there be a hell?

Why must there be a hell? Because there must be a place for the execution of divine justice. Earthly monarchs have their prison for criminals—and shall not God have his? Sinners are criminals, they have offended God. It would not be consistent with His holiness and justice—to have His laws infringed, and not inflict penalties.

- Thomas Watson

Why must there be a hell?

Why must there be a hell? Because there must be a place for the execution of divine justice. Earthly monarchs have their prison for criminals—and shall not God have his? Sinners are criminals, they have offended God. It would not be consistent with His holiness and justice—to have His laws infringed, and not inflict penalties.

- Thomas Watson

Why must there be a hell?

Why must there be a hell? Because there must be a place for the execution of divine justice. Earthly monarchs have their prison for criminals—and shall not God have his? Sinners are criminals, they have offended God. It would not be consistent with His holiness and justice—to have His laws infringed, and not inflict penalties.

- Thomas Watson